

locations : plan : communicate : experience : life tails™ : begin | lifestorynet

Gracie Sue

LIFESTORY:
Gracie Sue's life began on March 26, 2001. She was born to a family of Daisy Dogs and was fluffy and scruffy and endowd sweet through and through. Her gentle spirit and her big brown eyes were immediately apparent to everyone who met her. She certainly made herself known to our family the day she was chosen from all the puppies in the kennel. She sat back from the others, hunched on her rounded little bottom, and looked right up at us as if to say, "What about me? I'd be good." And, as they say, the rest is history.

As a puppy she was all black except for small white patches on her feet. You could hardly tell one end of her from the other except for her cute little pink tongue. Gracie quickly adjusted to life around the house and in the neighborhood. She loved seeing people and craved their love and affection. And she returned that love and affection many times over.

Print Life Story

- Life Story
- Memories/Thoughts... 31
- Guest Book... 41
- Poetry... 1
- Eulogy Writing
- Share This Page
- Photo Galleries... 3

2,309 visits

SEARCH LIFE STORIES

HOME

Life Story FUNERAL HOMES

locations : plan : communicate : experience : life tails™ : begin | lifestorynet

Gracie Sue Bauschke

LIFESTORY:
Gracie Sue's life began on March 26, 2001. She was born to a family of Daisy Dogs and was fluffy and scruffy and endlessly sweet through and through. Her gentle spirit and her big brown eyes were immediately apparent to everyone who met her. She certainly made herself known to our family the day she was chosen from all the puppies in the kennel. She sat back from the others, hunched on her rounded little bottom, and looked right up at us as if to say, "What about me? I'd be good." And, as they say, the rest is history.

As a puppy she was all black except for small white patches on her feet. You could hardly tell one end of her from the other except for her cute little pink tongue. Gracie quickly adjusted to life around the house and in the neighborhood. She loved seeing people and craved their love and affection. And she returned that love and affection many times over.

Print Life Story

- Life Story
- Memories/Thoughts... 31
- Guest Book... 41
- Poetry... 1
- Eulogy Writing
- Share This Page
- Photo Galleries... 3

2,309 visits

SEARCH LIFE STORIES

HOME

Life Story FUNERAL HOMES

Life Tails™ Memory Page

FREE

A personalized memory page you can create at www.lifestorynet.com.